

Workshop with

Carlo Aonzo

mandolin virtuoso

Pittsburgh
Mandolin
Society

Sunday,

March 14, 2010

10am–2pm

Allegheny Elks Lodge

400 Cedar Ave.
Pittsburgh, PA 15212

$25.00

"Carlo is an inspiring, brilliant teacher. The workshop will enlighten everyone who attends; musicians and non-musicians alike!"

*— Charley Rappaport, Music Director,
Pittsburgh Mandolin Orchestra*

A rare opportunity with a world-class musician and teacher!

Carlo Aonzo—Mandolinist extraordinaire from Savona, Italy. Winner of the 1997 Walnut Valley National Mandolin Contest in Winfield, Kansas and a regular teacher at the Steve Kaufman Bluegrass Camp in TN.

He will Discuss Improving Technique and Practice * Talk about the Popularity of the Mandolin World-wide * Compare a Variety of Vintage and Newer Mandolins from the US and Europe * Play a few Tunes * Answer Questions

Bring your Instrument!
Mando-family instruments, guitars, banjos and all fretted instruments welcome.

* Complimentary Coffee and Snacks *
(Pop and bottled water will be on sale)

* Tickets on sale at Acoustic Music Works, 2142 Murray Avenue in Squirrel Hill (412/422-0710) and by phone : 412/257-0670